5/31/64

O Almighty and Eternal God, thou who art before all and in all, we praise thy holy name. Thou art the creator of all things: thine eternal wisdom is revealed to us in the beauty of nature: thy power and might are seen in the life giving energy of sun and rain; thy compassion and kindness are made known to us in the gifts of human love and Friendship. We bow before thee in humility, O Lord, and yet we rejoice in thy presence knowing that thou hast accepted us as we are: We rejoice in the knowledge of thy ~~love~~ love - and the assurance of our salvation.

Our heavenly Father, thou hast blessed us abundantly. ~~On this day O Lord, our attention is turned to the~~ the gifts of freedom and abundance that we have bestowed on our nation. We thank thee O Lord for our nation's history - For those who have given their lives that we might live in freedom. Hear us now, as we each one silently, offer our thanks For our land - and For those who have died defending it. For those who now serve it in adversity. -

O thou who art the Lord of all nations, we realize we have not always dealt generously and fairly with our brothers. Our storehouses are full - and others starve: we are free, but others are enslaved by poverty and want. Hear us now O God as we each one silently pray For those thought the world who are less Fortunate than we.

O eternal God, Faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, we thank thee For the opportunity of service thru thy church. We humbly ask, our Father, For a new vision of our mission. We ask for Faith and conviction; we ask For boldness and courage. Hear us now as we each one silently pray for our church - and for thy continued guidance as we seek to do thy will.

O Lord, we again thank thee For this privilege of communion with thee and with each other. Hear our prayers - For we offer them in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ who taught his disciples to pray saying —